

Two Day Symposium 27/28 September 2025

Drill Hall Gallery, Easton Street, Portland DT5 1BW Dorset
Saturday 27 and Sunday 28 September 2025

RSVP: Dr. Kate Parsons MRSS kateparsonssculpture@gmail.com

Saturday 27 September 2025

9.30-10 Coffee/tea refreshments

10-10.15 Introduction: Hannah Sofaer/Dr Kate Parsons

10.30-11.30 Speaker 1 – Gill Hedley (Art Historian/ formerly British Council, Director Contemporary Art Society, London and currently Trustee for Art Monthly)
'Of short distances and definite places'

11-30-12 Tea Break

12-1.00 Speaker 2 – Chris Drury (Site Specific artist)
'Heart Soul Mind'

1-1.30 Panel Discussion chaired by Dr Clair Chinnery (Oxford Brookes University)

1.30- 2.30 LUNCH - Café

2.30-3 Speaker 3 – Bob Ford (Local Naturalist)
'Wildlife of Tout Quarry'

3.00 Bob Ford leads group tour of Tout Quarry

Sunday 28 September 2025

9.30-10 Coffee/tea refreshments

10-11 Speaker 4 - Hannah Sofaer (Artist & Creative Director of PSQT)
'Living Land Archive'

11-11.30 Tea Break

11.30-12.30 Speaker 5 – Phoebe Cummings (Artist/Research Associate, University of Westminster)
'Being Humid'

12.30-1.30 LUNCH - Café

1.30 – 2.30 Speaker 6 – David Buckland (Founder & Director of Cape Farewell)
‘Climate is Culture - how Cape Farewell has inspired artists to create artworks that ask us to re-think our human footprint’.

2.30 - 3 Plenary session and concluding discussion: chaired by Dr Clair Chinnery (Oxford Brookes University)